

Revision Assessment 2

1. When does the Occupational Safety and Health Act 2024 officially become effective?
 - A) January 2, 2024
 - B) April 2, 2024
 - C) October 2, 2024
 - D) January 2, 2025

2. At what employee threshold is it mandatory for a workplace to appoint a dedicated Health and Safety Officer?
 - A) Over 10 employees
 - B) Over 50 employees
 - C) Over 75 employees
 - D) Over 100 employees

3. Under which of the following circumstances is an employer NOT required to compensate a worker for an injury?
 - A) An injury caused during an authorized work trip overseas.
 - B) Medical bills resulting from a workplace accident.
 - C) An accident caused while using a personal vehicle to travel to or from work.
 - D) Harm caused by an intoxicated state not involving prescription drugs.

4. Who is responsible for investigating an accident, disease, or harm reported at a work site?
 - A) The President of the Maldives
 - B) The individual employee's supervisor
 - C) The Director General of the Workplace Safety and Health Advisory Council
 - D) The equipment supplier

5. In 2022, which principle did the ILO elevate to a "Fundamental Principle and Right at Work"?
 - A) Right to equal pay for equal work
 - B) Right to a safe and healthy working environment
 - C) Right to annual paid leave
 - D) Right to remote work flexibility

6. Which ILO convention serves as the baseline for national WHS policies and requires employers to ensure safe machinery and processes?
- A) Convention No. 187
 - B) Convention No. 170
 - C) Convention No. 155
 - D) Convention No. 148
7. ISO 45001 is a voluntary framework used specifically to build what kind of system?
- A) Financial Auditing System
 - B) Human Resource Management System
 - C) Occupational Health and Safety Management System (OHSMS)
 - D) Customer Relationship Management System
8. The "PDCA Cycle" used in ISO 45001 stands for:
- A) Prepare-Develop-Check-Analyze
 - B) Plan-Do-Check-Act
 - C) Protect-Deliver-Control-Assess
 - D) Prevent-Detect-Correct-Audit
9. Which international standard is specifically used for labeling and classifying hazardous chemicals?
- A) OSHA General Industry Standards
 - B) EU Framework Directive
 - C) ISO 9001
 - D) GHS (Globally Harmonized System)

Fill in the Blank Questions

1. The Occupational Safety and Health Act 2024 was published in the Government Gazette on _____.
2. The Act becomes officially effective starting _____.
3. An _____ is defined as a person or entity who engages a person to work under an employment contract.
4. Persons at work or their _____ may claim compensation for temporary or permanent disability or loss of life.
5. It is mandatory to appoint a health and safety officer at any workplace that exceeds _____ employees.
6. Employers must enact and implement an _____ policy in accordance with guidelines under the Act.

7. If an employee is fairly compensated under the Act, they are _____ from filing a suit against the employer.

Short Answer Questions

1. What are the general duties of an employer regarding workplace safety as defined by the Act?
2. List three specific rights granted to "Persons at Work" under this new legislation.
3. What are the reporting requirements in the event of a workplace accident?
4. How does the Act handle compensation for injuries occurring during work-related travel?
5. How does the Act define an "Employer"?
6. What are the specific responsibilities of a "Workplace Manager" regarding the safety of the physical environment?
7. What specific obligation is placed on manufacturers and suppliers of machinery or hazardous substances?
8. Under what conditions is a person at work entitled to claim compensation for an injury or death?
9. What is the legal consequence for an employee who accepts fair compensation under this Act?
10. Who is authorized to handle the assembly, attachment, or modification of machinery and equipment at a worksite?

11. In what situation would an injury caused by intoxication be exempt from employer compensation?

12. Under the Occupational Safety and Health Act 2024, what are the four specific incidents or costs for which an employer is required to provide compensation to a worker?